

Large Louis XV French fireplace in carved limestone : Boudin

This mantel is inspired by the classic Louis XV French fireplaces. It is finely carved by hand in our stone-cutting atelier in the stone of Estailades (a white limestone from Provence). This large fireplace features a pair of molded jambs in console, a lintel adorned with a large sculpted molding which extends also on the lintel's returns, and an overhanging molded tablet. The surrounding base in stone is sold separately.
