

Limestone fireplace with trumeau inspired by the style of Louis the 14th : Barcelonette

Inspired by the style under the reign of Louis XIV (the Sun King), this fireplace carved in the stone of Estailades presents on its trumeau an antique decor of pilasters and mouldings that draw a kind of frame. This fireplace also shows a fine cornice with mouldings, a pair of straight jambs adorned with engraved patterns, a thick moulding on the lintel, slightly curved angles on the lintel and tablet.
