Fireplace with trumeau and base in carved limestone of French Regency style

This superb fireplace carved in the Estaillades stone (a white limestone from Provence) is the reissue of a classic French Regency mantelpiece. It features a pair of jambs in console with floral sculptures at the bottom and engraved cartridges, a curved lintel with hand-sculpted shell and leaves, a molded tablet, a straight trumeau ornamented with embossed frame and a sculpted shell, finely molded cornice. Hand-crafted in Provence.
