

Fine fireplace with trumeau carved in French limestone - Louis XIII style

Fireplace with trumeau carved in a stone of Provence (Estailades), it is artisanally crafted and inspired by the Louis 13th style. It has long and thin jambs and a large moulding that runs along the entire hearth opening. Its tablet is wide and moulded. Its hood, also thin and finely moulded, is topped by a curved cornice. A frame is beautifully hand-carved in relief on the trumeau.
