

Beautiful fireplace with trumeau in the stone of Lens (Regency style)

This beautiful fireplace is made into a natural stone of Provence (the Pierre de Lens). It is carved by hand by our stonemasons, and is inspired by the French Regency style (characteristic of the sculpted shell in the middle of the lintel). The jambs have beautiful prints, the wide shelf is moulded and hectic, the trumeau has rounded angles and shows a moulded frame in its center, the cornice is fine and moulded.
