Central fountain carved in French limestone "Mas Provencal" with 2 basins

This rather original central garden fountain hand-carved in natural limestone features a circular surrounding base, two semi-circular basins with flat molded copings separated by a central pediment fitted with a wrought iron water spout in either side. A large overhanging cornice and 2 massive stone flower pots on each side of the pediment end this nice water feature. Carved in the stone of Avy (frost-resistant limestone).
